

2022 IN REVIEW

THANK YOU TO CT'S 1,750 DONOR PARTNERS!

This vital community makes it possible for CT to model for more people a gospel-focused vision of following Christ today.

GROWING GLOBAL ENGAGEMENT

- ▶ Five new global editors added to CT's staff in 2022.
- ▶ An expansive team of translators from Japan, Ukraine, Indonesia, Brazil, Argentina, Burundi, Switzerland, Mexico, Colombia, Taiwan, and more.
- ▶ New CT global storyteller Sophia Lee traveled twice to the Ukrainian war zone to report what God is doing on the ground through his church amid turmoil.
- ▶ CT's special Globe Issue cast a vision of the vast and varied, complex and compelling, sometimes broken but always beautiful global church.

"Shortly before his call to heaven, John RW Stott expressed his hope that Christianity Today would hold forth with a vision for the worldwide church. It is happening today not only with this issue, but also with the enhanced coverage of God's kingdom work with the appointment of a corps of reporters around the world. As a retired missionary after 48 years, CT continues to stir my heart!"

—Phil, Pennsylvania
